

movies@hope* presents:

Don't miss this Emmy Award-nominated documentary from 2020 about the pathos and – yes – humor of growing old. Filmmaker Kirsten Johnson decides to make a film about her aging father's reluctant decision to move from Seattle to live with her in New York. The result is by turns deeply touching and hilarious. Dr. Claudia Thorne, expert on aging and Assistant Professor at Coppin State University, will be on hand to introduce this unique film.

WHEN: Friday, October 29, 7:30 p.m.

WHERE: Online on Zoom.

See www.hopecp.org for the Zoom link and further information.
